

MEN'S WRISTS ATTRACT WOMEN AS WOMEN'S ANKLES ATTRACT MEN, 'TIS SAID

The Wrist of Francis X. Bushman, Movie Star and Idol of Women; the Ankles of the Dolly Twins, Famous Dancers.

New York, Oct. 16. — At last the sexes have come to an understanding! It is a man's wrists that attract women and women's ankles that attract men!

No lesser authority than the supreme court here brought that out. Mrs. Rebecca Fogg, witness in an alienation suit, said the defendant in the case asked her how he could make himself more attractive to women. She said she told him it was the shape of a man's wrist that counts.

Hughes says the Adamson law is not an 8-hour law at all. Yet the Republicans in congress, headed by Joe Cannon, fell over each other in the rush to vote for it.
